I was so happy to move back to Anna. However, it's moments like Janet's passing that makes me sad. I'll always remember how much Momma enjoyed working along side Janet in the church library. Would love to see their smiles as they greet one another once again! Prayers for wonderful memories of a sweet lady.

Janet was one of the first women to invite me to her home to meet others when I moved to Anna in 1975. She was always so very kind and genuine. Thinking about her dear family... so very sorry for your loss!
