“ Not real sure where to even begin with this. Mandy and I are 1st cousins on our moms side and we grew up together and were thick as thieves growing up. She was always with our Maw Maw & I was always with our Mimi whenever we were younger but we would always end up somewhere in Ullin together whether it would be at Heather & Sarah's house, Gina' house, the Slushers house, at the creek or just walking around town. One thing was for sure though, 9/10 times when you seen one of us you seen us both or the other was right close behind. We were so closer growing up and if she got mad at me she would tell Maw Maw and if I got mad at her I would tell Mimi lol good times. Whenever she got her drivers licenses she got a little yellow Geo Metro Convertable and let me tell you, we nearly burned the tires off of that little car on Grapevine Trail running back and fourth to Cape from Ullin. She was the coolest thing in Ullin with that little yellow car. As we got older we had so much fun together going to Carbondale and acting silly. We every broke down in Carbondale one night and was stranded at Hucks gas station but the entire time that we were broke down we made the best of it and we just laughed and people watched lol. I seen her and hung out with her and her 2 little ones less then 2 weeks ago and we just laughed and had a great visit. I'm so very thankful that we were able to have that time together. Never in a million year who I have thought it would be the last time I would see or talk to you though. I have SO many memories with her, so many that I could go on and on and on about. I'm Definitely going to miss you Mandy. I'm praying for your kiddos, Ryan and the rest of the family. I love you

“ I have way too many memories to post and all of them make me smile and cry at the same time. Though we weren't close since we've been grown, there's always that friend that you can pick back up with like there was never a time away. Prayers for her kids and her brother Ryan.

“ To the family of Mandy: I extend my deepest heart felt condolences. Mandy was so much a part of my family and like a daughter to me. Mandy was such a dear sweet person. She would brighten up a room when she'd enter with her smile. She was so full of life and made my life brighter. Ask Mandy a question and she didn't hesitate on giving her opinion. She was very much loved and will be greatly missed. Prayers for her dear children, other family members and to all who loved and will miss her dearly.
