“ My third grade teacher at Jefferson School in 1972. Some of my classmates and I have contacted each other on social media to share our memories of her. A very kind, soft spoken teacher who truly cared for her students. She was one of my favorites. Prayers and thoughts for her family. She was truly a special lady.

“ In 1973 I was in the third grade at Jefferson school in Marion. While I was in the class across the hall from her class, I can remember what a sweet lady she was. My husband David was a former student of hers. He said she was such a kind person. I can still picture her room to this day because it was on the side of the playground. Sorry for your loss, Mrs Teresa Bloodworth
