

Alice R. Wyatt

November 8, 1928 - March 29, 2012

Alice R. Wyatt, 83, of Murphysboro, passed away at 6:50 p.m. Thursday, March 29, 2012, at her residence in Murphysboro, Illinois, surrounded by loved ones singing "I'll Fly Away" as she went home.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p. m. Monday, April 2, 2012, at Pettett Funeral Home with Rev. Charles Allen officiating and burial at Murdale Gardens of Memory. Friends may call from 11 a.m. until the hour of services at the funeral home. Memorials may be made to the family or to Hospice of Southern Illinois, Inc.

Alice was born on November 8, 1928, in Gorham, Illinois, to Ray and Rose (Neace) Robinson.

She had worked at the former Calcrest Factory and had been a waitress for the East Side Cafe in Murphysboro.

Mrs. Wyatt was a member of the Harrison Baptist Church in Murphysboro, Illinois.

She married Clarence "Bo" Wyatt, Jr. on July 1, 1944, in Murphysboro and he survives. Even though they divorced in 1972, the loved stayed.

Alice is survived by nine children Joseph Wyatt of Granite City, Joyce Fields and her husband Larry Fields, Otis Wyatt and his wife Mary Wyatt, Mary Casey, and Tillie Rains and her husband Gary Rains, all of Murphysboro, Buddy Wyatt of Granite City, Irene Davenport and Dennis Wyatt, both of Murphysboro, and Russell Wyatt and his wife Sherry Wyatt of DuQuoin;

32 grandchildren, 54 great grandchildren, and 4 great great grandchildren;

two brothers Roy Robinson of Murphysboro, Charles Robinson and his wife Barbara Robinson of Harrisburg;

three sisters Raedean Miller and Tillie Walker and her husband Henry Walker, all of Murphysboro, and Gladys Chancey and her husband Paul Chancey of DeSoto;

many nieces and nephews, several aunts, uncles, and cousins.

She was preceded in death by three children Raymond Wyatt, Laura Jayne Wyatt and Virginia Rose Wyatt in infancy, one granddaughter Amy Johnson, two great grandchildren Johnna Casey and Draven Thorne, one sister Juanita Johnson, and her parents.

A special thank you to the staff of the Big Muddy Assisted Living, where she has lived for the past thirteen years, for their excellent care!
