

Allen Sibley Jr.

July 7, 1943 - December 11, 2020

Allen Sibley, Jr., 77, of Cape Girardeau, passed away Friday at Heartland Care and Rehab.

He was born July 7, 1943 at Sikeston, MO, the son of Webster Allen Sibley, Sr. and Elsie Helen (McDaniel) Sibley. He was married Jan. 25, 1969 to Sharon Montgomery.

Allen was a retired home inspector. He was an avid fisherman and duck hunter, love gardening, and was a voracious reader.

Survivors are his wife, Sharon of Cape Girardeau; daughter, Whitney Anne (Michael) Sheppard and a grandson, Webster Alonzo Sheppard all of Jackson.

Besides his parents he was preceded in death by a brother.

There will be no services held.

Crain Funeral Home & Cremation Service in Cape Girardeau is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Allen Sibley Jr.

October 23, 2023 at 06:26 AM

“ Sharon, please accept our sincerest sympathy at this time on your loss.

Ray & Emma Cannon

Ray Cannon - December 14, 2020 at 06:39 PM

“ This was so sad. Since Dad (Gary) and Mom (Shirley) have passed we have Fell almost completely out of touch. Please except our most sincere condolences for Doc's passing.

Rob and Donna Sumner

Rob & Donna Sumner - December 12, 2020 at 04:49 PM

“ Sharon and Whitney,

My heart goes out to both of you at the loss of Allen. Please know my many thoughts and prayers are with you both. May God's loving arms surround you and give you everlasting peace.

Love in Christ

Karen Webb McClendon

Karen Webb McClendon - December 12, 2020 at 07:21 AM

JW

Sharon and Whitney my condolences to you. Allen was a special friend to me while working at Sears. A very special person.

Jack Watts - December 12, 2020 at 09:34 AM

DL

Sharon and Whitney, so sad to hear of Allen's passing. We always enjoyed his sense of humor and uncanny knowledge of interesting subjects. Your family is in our thoughts and prayers.

Debbie Lewis - December 12, 2020 at 10:02 AM

MS

Sharon and Whitney, reading of Allen's passing brought back memories of his quiet professionalism when he was doing home inspections. His knowledge and gentle demeanor calmed many home buyers and helped them make informed decisions. I'm so sorry that you've lost a husband, a father and a proud grandfather. Stay strong; you'll remain in my prayers.

Marcia Schlueter

Marcia Schlueter - December 12, 2020 at 11:22 AM

LS

Sharon, I am so sorry for your loss. Alan was such a fine person. May you remember your beautiful times you had together.

Linda Spencer Roberts

Linda SRoberts - December 12, 2020 at 12:08 PM

MF

Sharon and Family,

I'm so sorry for your loss of Allen. You have my deepest, sincere, condolences.

May Our Lord comfort you, and give you His peace.

Martha Fisher

Martha Fisher - December 12, 2020 at 03:05 PM

BS

Sending love and prayers to you and Whitney from all of us at The Book Rack- John, Jennifer, and Becky

Becky Stull - December 14, 2020 at 04:47 PM

PH

Sharon my condolences to you and the family, you knew me as a young boy when you rented a room at my house from my mom Bette Brown at 126 S. New Madrid St in Sikeston, you and my mom knew each other from working at the Hospital, you taught me how to make potholders from loop. you were living with us when you were about to marry Allen and lost contract after that. i will be praying for you and your daughter Pat (Brown) Halsted

Pat Halsted - December 16, 2020 at 06:39 PM

BH

Taken too soon. You couldn't know Allen without liking him. He loved hosting get-togethers for family and friends and he and Sharon put on some good dinners. He was witty and smart and fun to be around he will be missed by many Sharon and Whitney you are in my prayers

Bonny Harris - December 17, 2020 at 07:10 PM