“ Alan...where do I begin...I first met You and Bobby when j worked graveyard at the gas station. Instantly you two took me under your wing, I will never, ever, forget that. Y We became family very quick. I'll never forget the ride we made to go see your best friend Bobby during his finals moments. I wish I could relive those days, and I'm praying one day when I see you we can. Love you Uncle Al, i imagine you and Bobby are cruising through a place I can only imagine so beautiful. Till we meet again ❤️ -Steele

“I've known Al since high school! He was the kindest and craziest person I've ever met. If you had a problem or worry, Al was the person to talk to. His nickname was Father Al! Among other names that I dare not mention. We considered each other brothers, call each other at least one time a week, sometimes more. I will dearly miss my Brother Al!
