“ I remember the first time I ever met Amy. I thought she was a teenager, lol. :) I also thought she was absolutely beautiful; and my children took to her immediately. She was always there for me and the kids. I fell in love with her just as quickly as my kids did.

Amy came with Garry one evening in August 2014, to see me. I had never been so thrilled to see her, to see that she was getting well, to know that she was out of the hospital and doing all right. That night, before they left to go home, she gave me the biggest hug she had ever given me. From that moment on, Amy stayed on my mind. Words cannot express the shock I felt when Garry came to me and told me that Amy is gone. Such a beautiful soul must have been needed for the good Lord to call her home.

Amy will always be in our hearts; never to be forgotten. We love you, Amy....God Bless, and Godspeed, Sweetheart.... <3

“ This is very hard. Amy was one of my all time besties. We understood who and what we were, when some didn't get it. We ran around all over not knowing where we were going, but welcomed whatever craziness we found when we got there.

Swinging from grapevines, country road cruising, bbq's, fishing, parties, and many other good times we shared has given me awesome memories that I'll never forget.

I love her very much. And always will.

“ I miss you Amy. God knows we made the most of everything we did whether it be back road ridin, shooting pool using a prosthetic leg, burying dogs, or oh so innocent trips to the fair. I love you very much.

*Much love to the whole family, thank you for being her family, your being of good nature showed in Amy's heart.
I love you all very much*

I wish I could be there today. You're one in a million, chick, and the world lost someone great. Life can be really unfair sometimes, to say the least. Thanks for being an inspiration and never letting the world see your frown. You define strong. You are beyond missed, by many. Til we meet again....

“ She was a strong beautiful girl, who did not want anyone to feel sorry for her. She was sassy and a beautiful soul. She will be missed. God Bless you sweet baby. All though I only knew you on fb, I felt as if I had known you all of my life. Our families are close, and I loved her like she was my family. Prayers for the Dover family.

“ You were the strongest woman in the world! My fondest moment was when u accepted being my oldest daughter's Godmother. Even though u were sick and not feeling well, you drove 700 miles to WI to stand up for her and dedicate yourself. I thank you so much for this and will hold your memory high in my daughter's life. You are my hero and my role model. I love you always. See you soon cuz!

Amy was a beautiful girl with a good heart. She loved her family very much. I remember when Amy was little and her mom would bring her to see Aunt Rose. Aunt Rose loved that little red headed girl and spending time with her and her mom. Amy always had a smile, even when she was little. I will miss that smile and her cousin JR. pestering her when we would visit.

Belinda, David, there are no words i can say except that we love you guys and you are in our hearts and prayers. She will be missed.

“ I have many memories of Amy . From the haircut where she would grab her hair and say chop chop to her changing the music at grad party to Hendrix . Country Jam where she deflated 1 of the big inflatables, and got a fake tat to spoof her grandma, or how she was only a change of clothes away from being ready to go with me. But my favorite memory is the day she was born and I seen that beautiful face. She took my heart that day and will always carry it with her as I do her. Til we meet again my C.B.. I love you
