“ I was so sorry to hear of Angie's passing. I was her son Zachariah's preschool teacher way back during the 1994-1995 school year. When I would visit her home for home visits we had some wonderful conversations. She was truly a woman of faith and a joy to be around. I will never forget some of the discussions we had regarding a variety of topics. I remember the beautiful little dress that she gave me for my daughter when my daughter was born. Some people just stick with you. Although I had not seen her in in years, I do have fond memories of her. Rest in peace Angie.
