“ *My "Big Sis" loved babies as we all know. Whenever she would see a new grandchild, great grandchild, niece or nephew for the first time, she would squeeze their little cheeks. I can imagine she is doing just that very thing in heaven!
Love you & miss you!*

“ It was an experience living next door to the Rigdons on Themis Street. Anna Mae was amazing in her ability to keep her family together through some tough times. I don't know how she did it. She was an inspiration and it was a privilege to have known her. Her dedication to Southeast Hospital Auxiliary by making hats for newborns was just a small example of her giving personality and love of babies. Our deepest sympathy on the loss of your sweet mother. Barbara Bowers Campbell, Kim Bowers Schulz, and our dad, James Bowers

you were a great friend to me, Barbara... loved your mom and dad... so gentle... so accepting of the comings and goings of 12 children.... Your mom and dad helped my mom be able to raise the children... actually, I think your dad had more of a hand in it than we realize... so softspoken... so "how's it going today" ... so genuine... we loved that you were our neighbors

“ It was always a brighter day when I got to see Mrs Rigdon and her daughters. When she found out I was having a baby boy and delivering at St Francis she made me a little blue hat. That little tiny hat came w a warning label... " I make hats for Southeast hospital but I like you and I play Bingo with your grandma". It was so sweet just like her. I'm so sorry for your loss of your mother our heavenly Father will take it from here. Love. Jodi

I never knew your mom but the proof of how great of a mom she was is when I see all of the family gathering around in her time of need. I can tell she was loved. Teresa T

what a miracle she orchestrated, Teresa....I really believe she willed herself back a few years ago before we even knew Mike needed her she knew that... so I am thankful... they became great comrades in pain... but... he loved her as I loved his mom... what more could anyone ask...yes... all who were close and many of our spouses.. so glad Mike was there.. our girls were on the phone when she passed... I don't even use my phone except in emergencies... guess what.. mom knew she wanted them there with her... what a miracle... I miss her so... but honestly I'm pretty sure she is happier with daddy after almost 52 years!!! We are the lucky ones!!!

mom received her wish... it is hard to let her go... but she knew we were there... and loved her greatly.... I miss her so.... her stories, the cardinals games... the talking.. but most of all I miss that she cared for Mike when his cancer appeared and he did likewise for her... It was a God working in our lives... and we didn't even know it... how holy is that???
