“ Going to miss this beautiful lady... I loved listening to her stories and words of wisdom. For more than a week before her unexpected passing, she crossed my mind several times and I kept telling myself I needed to go over and visit her... and man I wish I would have so I could have at least had one last conversation with her.. When my family was in hard times, she made sure we knew that we could come to her house no matter what we needed. A few months ago, she didn't think twice when Yvonne told her my fiance and I needed help making sure the house was in pristine condition before a very important meeting the next morning- she was at the house, ready to help with anything we needed her to do-- and we couldn't have gotten it all done in time without her and Mike's help and I'll forever be grateful for them.. I hope she knew that.. Belinda was one of a kind and will never be forgotten nor could anyone ever take her place... It just doesn't seem real still that she's really gone.. Life is definitely not going to be the same... My prayers go out to her family and anyone who knew and loved her... ❤️
Rest easy Belinda... ❤️
