“ Aunt Bell was a warm beautiful person. She was loved by a whole lot of brother-in-laws, their wives and children a couple of sister-in-laws and their husbands and their children. We cousins always had a wonderful time at the family reunion at her home in Olive Branch, IL. Aunt Bell and Uncle Buddy opened their home to us anytime we were near and every 4th of July. What I will remember most about my Aunt Bell is her warm smile.

It is sad to know she is not here with us anymore, but that sadness is for the ones left behind. Aunt Bell knew Jesus and she is in God's presence. She has met Jesus face to face. Every pain, every tear, and the difficulty breathing are all gone now. Heaven has to be celebrating to receive such a wonderful soul.
