“ 20 years ago, I only lived in Carbondale and worked in Murphysboro for 3 years, but in that short time, Tina became my friend. She was kind, generous, fun and funny. She often spoke about her family, whom she loved dearly, but mostly about her dreams. She was pure light and love. Peace and Blessings to the family.

“ Miss Tina and I grew up together, in the halls of E. A. Kraft, Plumbing and Heating, Inc. Playing as kids, laughing, having a good time. One thing we always could do is laugh together. She was a Good person and she will be missed.
