

Betty Glodo

February 11, 1933 - April 28, 2021

Betty Glodo, age 88, of East Cape passed away on April 28, 2021 peacefully at her home, surrounded by her family.

She was born on February 11, 1933 in Gorham, IL to Charles and Mary (Lindsey) Qualls. She married Earlis Glodo on March 3, 1951. They recently celebrated 70 years of marriage together.

Betty was a hairdresser for over 15 years, operating her shop out of her home. She owned and operated the Dollhouse Children's Wear in Anna. She was an avid seamstress, often making elegant gowns for special occasions such as weddings and proms. Later in her career, she worked for her Son and Daughter-in-Law, Terry and Becky at Carpet and Floor center in Cape.

She was a charter member of the East Cape Baptist Church. Betty enjoyed sewing, Cardinals baseball, singing in a quartet at various churches and most of all, watching her grandchildren compete in all types of sports.

She is survived by her husband, Earlis Glodo of East Cape, IL; Children, Gordon (Cheryl) Glodo of Grand Tower, IL, Patti (Paul) Pinnon of Wolf Lake, IL, Lisa (Michael) Murphy of Wolf Lake, IL and Terry (Becky) of East Cape, IL; 9 Grandchildren, Phillip (Madison) Glodo of Marion, IL, Jennifer Glodo of Jonesboro, IL, Cory (Alex) Barker of Cape Girardeau, MO, Clay (Lindsay)

“ So sorry to hear of Betty's passing. Cheryl and I always wondered how Betty and Earlis were doing since we moved. I would see both at many school events while I was teaching. Betty was such a sweet person and devoted mother and grandmother. She had a tremendous influence on so many and will be missed greatly. Rest in peace Betty Glodo.
