IN MEMORY OF:

Bonnie Welker-Hahs

Serving Location:

CRAIN FUNERAL HOME – CAPE GIRARDEAU

829 North West End Boulevard, Cape Girardeau, Missouri

Bonnie Welker-Hahs 88, of Cape Girardeau passed away at home surrounded by love, on Tuesday April 22nd.

She was born January 14, 1937 in Cape Girardeau, the daughter of Luther John and Audrey Thelma Rhodes Welker.

Bonnie attended Cape Girardeau Central High-school. She worked and retired from Florsheim Shoe Company.

She was so strong, and the foundation of her family. She loved to read, the smell of lavender and most of all, being with family. She showed the meaning of life to all around her. Through the many trials and tribulations of life, Bonnie always remained strong and selflessly devoted; being the rock for her loved ones. Her strength will live on in the hearts of those that loved her so very much.

Survivors include her grandchildren, Laci (Josh) Poole, and Dillon Poole, whom she raised as her own, Sean Poole, Jessica Haskell, Toni Pettit, Kelsey (Corey) Ponder; great-grandchildren, Jewlian, Tatianna, Jacob, Willow, Austin, Marissa, Walker, Alexa, Aaliyah, Jaxson, Audrey, and Sunnie, all of Cape Girardeau.

She was preceded in death by her parents, two daughters, Susan Harris Huber and Teri Harris Poole; three brothers, Marvin, Tony, and Bobby Welker; and a sister, Patsy Higgins.

Per Bonnie's wishes, there will be no funeral services.

Crain Funeral Home and Cremation Service in Cape Girardeau is in charge of arrangements.

“ I'm sad to say she should have never had kids much less raise grandchildren. She was incredibly mean to others letting her family run wild. None of that family are successful in anything. Stealing lying drugs explains why. Sorry bout ya.
