

Carl "Gene" Glenn

April 16, 1946 - November 22, 2006

Carl "Gene" Glenn, age 60, of Murphysboro, passed away at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday, November 22, 2006, at his residence in Murphysboro.

Carl was born on April 16, 1946, in Carbondale, IL, to Arthur Douglas Glenn and Melba Catherine (Roberts) Glenn.

Mr. Glenn was a mechanic at the Hickory Ridge Golf Course in Carbondale, and he had previously been a mechanic at Grob Chevrolet and in the coal mines.

He was a U.S. Navy Vietnam veteran.

Gene was a member of Murdale Baptist Church in Carbondale. He was also a lifetime member of V.F.W. Post # 7190, the N.R.A. and a member of the U.M.W.A.

He loved hunting, fishing, and guns.

Gene married Jeanette Tripp on August 14, 1971, in Pomona, and she survives.

Other survivors include two children Matt Glenn of Chicago and Michelle Heavrin of DeSoto;

one granddaughter, who was Papa's buddy, Kallie Heavrin of DeSoto;

three sisters Brenda Turner and her husband Douglas of Carrollton, GA, Carole Ann Carlock and her husband Jack Carlock, and Mary Johnson, all of Murphysboro; and one brother Bill Glenn of Murphysboro; many nieces and nephews include Brandi Purvis and her husband Anderson Purvis of Mobile, AL.

He was preceded in death by his parents and two sisters.

Tribute Wall

“ Carl "Gene" Glenn

October 23, 2023 at 06:26 AM