Caterina Zunino Migone, recently 99, resident of Carbondale, peacefully passed away at home on July 27, 2024. She was born on July 10, 1925, in Lima, Peru, to Italian immigrant parents.

She married Dr. Dante Migone on September 4th, 1952, in Lima. Together with her husband, she immigrated to the USA in 1993, where she lived with her children. They were married for 46 devoted years until Dante's death in 1998.

Caterina is survived by her three children, Aldo (Ana), Silvia (Carlos), and Franco (Patricia); her six grandchildren, Fernanda (Jose Roberto), Carlos (Alyssa), Fernando (Zoe), Daniela, Dante Aldo, and Dante Mario (Melissa), and her four great-grandchildren Jordi, Cecilia, Naima, and Aiyla.

Throughout her adult life she was an outstanding cook and an even better baker. In her eighties she took art classes and became a gifted painter. Caterina was an enthusiastic and avid walker until the last few weeks of her life, very opinionated, and fiercely independent.
