“ Sincere prayers and thoughts go out to Crystal, Caitlyn and Madison Irvan. And the rest of the family. So sad to hear of his passing. He was a great guy, Father and Grandparent. I remember the first time I have ever met Chuck. He and Eva came up to our house when we lived in Chester. I could not get over how tall he was. Being short as I am. Everyone is tall to me. But he has a Smile that matched his height. He started out quiet and reserved..but once he warmed up to you..he could sure make you laugh. I never did get around to asking him how tall he was. ;) I am still trying to wrap my head around his passing. But I am sure God knew what he was doing when he took Chuck. He will greatly be missed by all. R.I.P. Chuck..say a HUGE Hello to my parents, grandparents, my sisters Eva, Sue, my brothers Ricky and Leonard, my nephews Bert, Eli and Larry and everyone else of our family up there. Heaven received another Angel that day. :(
