Charles W. "Chuck" Felter, Jr., age 68, of Oak Ridge, Missouri, passed away on Monday, January 13, 2025 at his residence with his family and loved ones at his side.

He was born on April 12, 1956 to Charles W., Sr. and Verena (Blechle) Felter in Cape Girardeau, Missouri. On April 24, 1982, he married the love of his life, Pamela Strange and together spent over 42 years together, and she survives.

Chuck was a 1976 graduate of Central High School in Cape Girardeau. He worked as a carpenter for 45 + years, several of those years being with Penzel Construction, and he retired from the Carpenters Union Local 1770. Chuck loved to be outside from sun up to sun down and evidenced by the many things he loved doing like gardening, lawn mowing, riding side-by-side, going on evening cruises with his dog, Maggie looking for deer and turkeys, raising his chickens aka "The Ladies" he would call them, going to shooting matches, and being an avid hunter. He loved his grandsons dearly and being their "Paw Paw," teaching them all the things there is to do outdoors.

Along with his parents and wife, survivors include his daughters, Sarah Felter and Chelsea (Jordan) Marbain; son, Lance Felter; grandsons, Eli Marbain and Brody Marbain; sisters, Sandie (Kenny) Suhre, Debbie (Butch) Baker, Carol (late, Bo) Bragg, Laura (August) Ritter, Mary Beth Felter; brother, Steven (Leslie) Felter; and numerous nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews.

He is preceded in death by his maternal and paternal grandparents, nephew, Daulton Bragg; niece, Alex Voerg Beck; and brother-in-law, Bo Bragg.

No services are planned at this time. Another announcement will be made in the spring when the family will host a Celebration of Life.

The cremation of Charles W. "Chuck" Felter, Jr. has been personally handled by the staff of Crain Funeral Home.

Crain Funeral Home and Cremation Service in Cape Girardeau is in charge of arrangements.
