

Charles L. Brown

April 11, 1949 - July 6, 2007

Charles "Charlie" L. Brown, age 58, of Oraville, passed away at 11:35 p.m. Friday, July 6, 2007, at St. Joseph Memorial Hospital in Murphysboro.

Charles was born on April 11, 1949, in Murphysboro, to Roy H. Brown and Margaret (Jatho) Brown.

He served in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam Conflict.

Charlie worked as a laborer for E.T. Simmonds Construction.

Mr. Brown was a member of the Laborer's Local # 773 in Marion, and a member of the American Legion Post # 127 and the V.F.W. Post # 7190, both of Murphysboro.

He like to work on old cars.

Charlie is survived by two children Angie Cochran and her husband Terry Cochran of Murphysboro, and Matt Brown of Oraville;

two grandchildren Clay Cochran and Chelsea Cochran, both of Murphysboro;

one brother and sister in law Glenn and Carolyn Wisely of Murphysboro; two nephews John Wisely and Jeff Wisely, both of Vergennes; and one cousin Ed Childers of Oraville.

He was preceded in death by his parents, grandparents, and one sister Nora Mae Tuttle.

Tribute Wall

“ Charles L. Brown

October 23, 2023 at 06:26 AM

“ *I want to express my sympathy to the family of Charles Brown.
There is no loss until you lose the one you love.
Charles will be missed by many.*

Reggie Lafaye - July 11, 2007 at 11:50 AM