

Cheryl Carmel Adams

January 28, 1958 - April 8, 2016

Cheryl "Carmel" Adams, 56, of Lindstrom, MN, formerly of Cairo, IL, died unexpectedly on Thursday, January 8, 2015, at her home in Lindstrom.

Carmel was born January 28, 1958 in Carmel, California.

Carmel was raised in Monterey, CA until moving to Cairo, IL as a youth. She graduated from high school in Cairo then attended Paducah Technical College earning a degree in Auto Mechanics. After graduation she moved to Saint Paul, MN where she worked as a mechanic and parts manager at the downtown Sears.

She enjoyed fishing, camping and barbequing. She especially loved Halloween and the Green Bay Packers. Those that knew her could attest to her great story telling ability and her sense of humor. Her southern accent made the stories even better. Carmel will be missed by her Lindstrom friends and especially Keith and Robin.

Carmel and her long-time partner, Lisa Kantorowicz, passed away together at their home due to a faulty furnace, along with their pet dog Nugget and their Guinea Pigs. They will be missed.

She was preceded in death by her step-father, Andrew Engebretso; siblings,

Mark and Rebecca Richardson; infant sister, Mary Rachel Sherril. She is also preceded by Oliver and Edna Victor of Cairo who raised Carmel.

Survivors include his mother, Rachel Engebretson of Balsam Lake, WI; brothers, Dale (Mary Ann) Sherrill, Daniel (April) of Saint Paul, MN; sister, Margaret Engebretson of Balsam Lake, WI; nephews, Christopher Sherrill, Thomas Richardson, Jeb Richardson; niece, Maxine Richardson.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, January 17, 2015 at Faith Lutheran Church, Balsam Lake, WI at the Kolstad Family Funeral Home. Inurnment will be held 10:00am on Monday, April 25, 2016 at Grand Chain Masonic Cemetery with Rev. Larry Buckles officiating.

Crain Funeral Home in Cairo is in charge of the arrangements.
