“ So sorry for your family loss. Many years ago I had broken my ankle. Chris was with my sister at the time. Tornado warning sounded and he came to get me since they had basement. By time we got to their house it was starting to storm. Instead of me battling crutches he just picked me up and carried me. I was cracking up but he made sure I was safe. Hadn't seen him in years but had happy memories

“ I'm so sorry to hear this. I enjoyed his friendship when I still lived near him. A good hearted man who would give you the shirt off his back if you asked. I still smile when I remember him handing me a giant gun and daring me to try it out. Then warning me how to stand and brace myself...then he would LAUGH at my reaction to the recoil. (Which is why he wanted me to try it in the first place!)
