“ You are the nicest person, just as your niece Julia described. I'm at peace knowing you two are sharing a new life in a new world. I wish both of you a blissful rest, yet your burnt green beans are truly the best.

“ I loved it when Cindy got tickled! She didn't have a loud laugh, but you could see with the tear in her eye she was laughing so hard on the inside. She was my sister forever. We often said, no matter what, we were still sisters. I sure did love that little girl! As a Mother, her children were so blessed to call her Mom. She was so gentle and loving with her kids.

“ Dr Wright, I'm so sorry for your loss. It sounds like she was a very kind and amazing person, and you have inherited those fine qualities. Prayers for you and your family as you navigate through this deep loss. It is difficult but even more so during the holidays, God bless you, Hannah, the children, and the rest of your family.

“ Ron and I send heartfelt condolences to all of Cindy's family. When Cindy and I worked at Fragrant Fields in Dongola, we were asked to weed and cultivate the public garden. We worked together and had to agree that we couldn't believe we were getting paid to pull weeds! Yes, she loved the garden! It was a happy day together and it made us think of the paradise earth to come. 🌈

My heart is broken at the loss of our dear cindy. I met her when I was seventeen years old before she had the children... She was there to listen to all my woes in life... So kind and loving. Her passion for her family and her animals and just life is what I love about her. This wouldn't be so hard if she wasn't loved so much...
