“ CJ, was truly big brother to me. when we was going to school, CJ always watched over me to make sure no one picked. He would tell them, that I was his little brother and they had better leave me alone. He was one of a kind. He always looked out for me when we were kids. e loved his family, and he truly enjoyed his job at the Wonder Market. I know because I managed the Wonder Market for several years. He was truly a dedicated man to his family. You will be missed. You will be in a better place. Tell Mom I said hey.

*Your brother

“ To Mrs. Davis and family:

Please accept my condolences on the passing of CJ. We first met when I was a young man working at the Wonder Market in Cairo in the early 1990's. He was a great mentor and is one of the reasons I proudly joined the US Army after high school.

Over the years, and prior to his retirement, I was sure to always stop by the Wonder Market to see him whenever I was on leave from the Army. CJ was always proud of us young men as if we were his own. I will miss his stories.

Please be comforted in the knowledge that CJ will never truly be gone from us. For our loved ones remain with us in our hearts, and in our fond memories. May God bless you during your time of bereavement.

Respectfully,

“ Mrs. Davis - I worked with CJ for several years at the store back in the early 90s. His friendship meant a lot to me and the other guys that worked there. That friendship lasted over the years from great distances and long moments between contact. His honesty and opinions were genuine and he was never afraid to share them with anyone! I visited him several times in the nursing home when I was home on vacation. He would be mad as hell to know I finally found out his first name was Cloyce! We sat and had great conversations catching up and it was tearful for me whenever I had to leave him. Your husband was a good man and please know that he will be missed. I choose to remember the CJ Davis that laughed hard and cared for those he loved even harder. Be strong know that he is truly in a better place. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

Respectfully
