“ Dear Susan, Robert and Julie. Your mom and I worked and played together many many years ago and I just loved her! Remember many good times and a beautiful woman. Lost track a few years ago, but nothing but smiles when I think of her and her kids. Prayers for all of you and may she rest in peace. May your memories be special, as they are the legacy of love.

“ Cynthia was such a special lady to us. When we saw her at church, she was always smiling, doing sweet things for others, and cheering others on their way. She really wanted to sing in our choir when she first began coming, but the choir loft was not handicap accessible. She expressed her love of music and we will get to hear her Bach Society voice one day when we will meet again in heaven. May she Rest In Peace until that day!

“ Such a sweet, sweet lady! We clicked the first time we met and we’ve been exchanging birthday and Christmas cards for years. Rejoicing that she’s singing and dancing now, yet saying prayers for those left behind.
