“ Dale will be missed by many. I enjoyed his witt and could always count on Dale for a spirited conversation on one subject or another. He had a thirst for knowledge and shared that with anyone interested. Not to mention his vast list of yummy recipes. Much love to you Betty and family, our thought and prayers are with you at this difficult time. Greg and Angel Clarke, Grand Tower

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Dale's passing. We went to school together from 1st grade on. Although we haven't been close in our adult years, I always thought Dale was a good guy. The thought that someone I went to school with has passed really breaks my heart. I won't be attending his funeral as I will be out of town. My sincere sympathy to his loved ones.
