“ What can I say. You were always the one to make us laugh. When I was a kid you had me scared to death of "Clyde", the monster in your garage. HaHa. You were always there when we went to visit Gram. You were a great man, just like Pa (Sonny). In less than a year the world lost two of the best men I've ever known.

“ I will miss you Uncle Bud. I will always remember when you were standing up on the hill at Gramps and Grams house, Jim, Steve and I got into a fight with the boys from the terrace when they come running into the yard at us and you yelled out "get em Linda", we did win that fight - I was so happy you were proud of me for that. We had many memories with the horses we had there, and I sure wish Dad and I could have brought out my horses for us to ride on the trails at your house like you wanted to do - we talked alot about that - and it was nice even just planning what we wanted to do and with all those miles of trails out there. I will never forget you. Love you Uncle Bud. Linda

“ Uncle Bud, words can not describe the loss I feel. You were my Uncle and my Godfather. You were the one who drove me to my wedding, a memory I treasure. You taught Blaze to drink your bottle of pop, something Steve could not do with him. You had a way of telling stories that had us laughing so hard we were crying. I think you and my Dad are now catching up on all your fishing trips and who always caught the biggest. I will deeply miss you, Love Susan
