“ David was a beautiful , kind person.. In my early teen years I met he and Joe, and went to church h with them, he was so very influential to me... I even named my son after him.. Many nights gathered in their home drinking warm Dr. Pepper, playing board games and reading the Bible, studying scripture, watching television. Brilliant mind, and he had great love for his family and children.. I will always remember his intellect and profound love for his family
