“ Jean, I am so sorry to hear of Dave's passing. Please accept my deepest condolences to you and the family.

I worked in the technical side of radio at District 13, Du Quoin. I got to see Dave frequently. He was a great guy to know, be around, and he always had a laugh to share. On occasion I would see Dave at either Kroger or Rural King in Murphysboro. He never failed to take a few minutes to stop to see how I was doing. He truly cared for people, in or out of the uniform. To this day I can't pass Etherton Switch without thinking of him.

I'm going to add a couple of photos I took while we both were involved in the 1993 Mississippi River flooding at Prairie du Rocher in Randolph County. Dave had a unique stature when he stood and it was always easy to pick out his frame from all the rest of the folks around him. It won't be hard to see in the photos.

I hope you find comfort knowing he was well liked, respected, and always willing to do the right thing for the citizens of Illinois. May God bless you and wrap his arms around you.

“ David Conrad you'll be missed I remember you when I started working at Denny's restaurant in Carbondale on 1985. You would come in between 4:00 and 6:00 a.m. when you were working to have coffee. I miss your stories and we talked about South Elgin where I grew up. And you talked of your family a lot to me lot of us waiter and waitresses from Denny's restaurant knew you we all used together and chit chat with you every morning when you came in. So sorry to read of your passing my condolences to the family and friends of this gentleman. Great individual and always gave his advice on things that you would ask him about. Never a dull moment with him too. Until we meet again on the other side of this life rest in peace my friend. God bless you and I'm really glad I got to know you.

“ Conrod was a name spoken in our home on a daily basis. He was my dad's boss/ supervisor (Harry A. Simpson) at IDOT weigh scales. Laughs,stories and situations were always shared with Conrod involved.

Though dad passed many yrs ago, the memory of what Conrod meant to dad,never did.

Thoughts and prayers for the entire family.
