Love, The Wingate Family - September 22, 2021 at 11:41 PM

“ David has been one of my oldest friends- way back in 5th grade at Lincoln school on Anna. We were also close friends at church attending Anna First Baptist. There are too many zany memories to go into- graduation party in the woods behind my house, cutting up in Ms Harris PE class at high school, his merciless good natured teasing of his friends - worse for the few he thought were rude and cocky. David was strong minded, outspoken and loyal to a fault. He wasn't perfect- none of us are- but I know I could call him up anytime and get a warm, thoughtful reception from the other side. Most importantly, he had a relationship with his lord Jesus Christ. I know I will see him again -just wish it were sooner. My prayers go out to his family. Edwin Newton
