“ My Uncle David was always that wild hair, crazy Uncle that acted on his impulses! And in most cases the outcome was him doing something absolutely dangerous or crazy, but that's just the way he was he refused to grow up even though he was growing old! He was old school and self-taught in most things that he did. From running his own sawmill and building a beautiful homestead for he and Carol to the amazing leatherwork and saddles that he made! The day my uncle married Carol was probably the best thing that ever could have happened to him! They shared the same values, same likes and loved each other like no other and built a wonderful life together!

He was a true craftsman, a loving father, grandfather and husband. He was the provider and the protector for all of his family and he will be sorely missed!

David found God in his later years, and now resides in Heaven with our Lord Jesus.

Your work here was far from done but all those that you mentored along the way will carry on your traditions. We all love and miss you, until we meet again, rest easy Uncle.
