“ I have great memories of this dear friend. Growing up in Tamms, Illinois, my Mom, Dad, and we kids spent a lot of time visiting Dean (or "Deanie", as we called her then) and her husband, Jim, who passed away before she did. They lived in a little trailer house in Tamms, then. We spent a lot of time sitting out in the yard there, just visiting and passing time. Dean worked at Crain Funeral Home for many years, and gave many people comfort over those years, including my own family on many occasions. You will be missed, Loretta Dean Robison. Fly high in heaven with those you've missed all these years...much love to JL, Laura, and the rest of Dean's family.

“ Golly, I have so many fond memories with the Honey family. Laura and I have been friends since the age of five. She was my Maid of Honor at my wedding and still today consider her and her brother, JL as very dear friends forever.

I loved their mother, Dean. She was a class act!! Very sweet, friendly and great mother. So many memories of playing in the Honey's yard and being invited to eat many dinners.

For the past several years she was the friendly and very genuine greeter for Crain's Funnel Home. She truly was a smart and most wonderful woman. She would always help anyone and did many good things in the community.

She will be sorely missed by many. My deepest condolences to her son, daughter, and many grandchildren and I believe she had a great grand child as well.

Rest In Peace and May God Bless You 🙏 Heaven just got an Angel. 🕊️🕊️🕊️

My deepest sympathy,

“ I will always cherish time spent with Dean. I will remember her stories of dancing at the barn in Ullin and singing at the jam session of local musicians. She was always a good friend to me sharing advice and a friendly hug. When things weren't going so well for me, Dean was there with words of encouragement. When I last saw her just a few days ago, she greeted me, as always, with a big smile. She was loved and will most certainly be missed.
