“ What a sweet quiet girl little Debbie Monahan was! My parents, George and Lois Burgett, taught a special Sunday school class at Lighthouse Baptist Church in Cape Girardeau in which Debbie was a member. My special brother, Douglas Burgett, was also a member of that class. Debbie was so shy and would never look up but she was always quietly listening. My parents would turn her Bible or the hymnal to the right page even though she never uttered a word. Debbie would always nod her head yes when my parents would ask if she wanted them to pray for her mom, Ruth. Debbie dearly loved her mother. Heaven has gained another sweet angel and I hope she says hello to my parents and my brother.
