

Delmer "Dale" Crow

October 26, 1951 - November 29, 2020

Delmar Dale Crow, 69, passed away at 12:15 a.m. on Sunday, November 29, 2020, at his sister's home in Murphysboro, Illinois.

Delmar was born on September 26, 1951, in Vergennes, Illinois, to Delmar Crow and Ruby (Clover) Crow.

He had served in the U.S. Army and was a member of the Paul Stout American Legion Post # 127 in Murphysboro.

Mr. Crow had been a farmer and had worked as a truck driver. He enjoyed farming and he liked to watch Westerns like Gunsmoke and many others. He especially loved his kids and grandkids.

Delmar is survived by four children Rachel (Jen) Crow of Springfield, IL, Adam Crow of Carbondale, Amy (Jamie) Goodman of Grand Tower, and Creo Crow of Murphysboro;

five grandchildren;

one brother Daniel Crow of Vergennes;

and two sisters Norma Ellis and Mary Stanton, both of Murphysboro.

He was preceded in death by 3 brothers Raymond, David, and Jewell, one sister Brenda Crane, and his parents.

His services are private gravesite services held at Central Cemetery.

For more information please visit www.pettettfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

“ Delmer "Dale" Crow

---

October 23, 2023 at 06:26 AM

“ Delmar cracked me up. The first time I met him he snuck up on me at Kroger sitting in my truck and banged on the window. Scared me to death. 🤔 He was a sweet person and once you got to know him he was a friend for life. I'm gonna miss him.

---

Michael Dosch - December 11, 2020 at 04:59 PM