“ To Dennis's family and those who were close to him; my deepest condolences as you navigate the path of grief. May his own words and the faith that kept him going and growing be of great comfort to all.

"Even though I will not reach my three score and ten years [at 68], I have lived a life that has been fuller and more blessed than I could ever imagine. I am blessed by the grace of God."

Dennis's final spoken words to me were, "All that really matters is that we know that God, is, Love. Later my friend."
