“ You were the best dad 3 kids could ever want, you were a role model for us to live by and everyday we fell short. You are loved more than words could say and missed beyond measure. Life will never be the same, your chair will be forever empty your little girl barbie misses you time seems to have stopped. Our only happiness from this is knowing you're with Jesus and having the best conversations waiting for us to all make our journeys one day. Love and miss you dad.
