“ My heartfelt condolence to the Farris family. I often saw Donna in Kroger or Walmart with her grandchildren over the years I worked in Anna. She was always cheerful and made time to chat for a few minutes. I know she will be missed. She was such a kind person.

“ Donna will be sadly missed. The last time I seen her was around 20 years ago. She was a mirror image of my Mother. It was wonderful to see her and all the family.

When we talked a couple of week ago, it was a great visit. We talked of God, forgiveness and His love. I know that Donna is in Heaven with all our loved ones, pain free and happy.

*Love and Prayers,
