“ I have great memories of Doris. When friends would visit her grandson Nathan at her home, she would cook food and push sweets on us kids until we were stuffed. She was always welcoming and giving to ragamuffin kids like us. She spoiled her grandchildren, like every grandmother should. I am grateful for those times. Condolences to the family. If she made such a joyful impact on me on those summer days, I can't imagine the impact this loving woman had on her family. God bless you all.
