“ I was so sorry to see Doug's obituary in the Missourian today. I had been out of town for several days and just returned home late yesterday evening. I was catching up on my newspapers this morning and discovered the sad news, but not soon enough to allow me to attend the funeral.

Doug was a great guy and a good friend for many years. We did a lot of business together at the bank, and we always had a great relationship. Doug had a wonderful sense of humor, loved to tease and joke, and he and I enjoyed needling each other on various issues as we conducted banking business.

My deepest sympathy to Edna and the entire family. Special condolences to "Gab", Terry and Deana with whom I have had very cordial relationships for many years. I will keep all of you in my thoughts and prayers.

“ This is Danny and Patricia Dunston. We now live in Peoria Illinois but we were Doug and Edna's neighbors for 26 years. We lived in the little house by the underground house which used to belong to Pat and Edith Guild. We just learned of Doug's passing and are very saddened by it. All of the Honey family were great neighbors and always friendly. We have missed all of them since we left. We send our condolences to Edna and the family, as well as our prayers. God bless you all.
