

Dylan Riley Winslow

April 25, 1986 - September 18, 2020

Dylan Riley Winslow, 34 of Marion, passed away Friday, September 18, 2020 at his home.

He was born on April 25, 1986 in Conroe, TX to Brad R. and Karla E. (Crews) Winslow.

Dylan graduated from Vienna High School in 2004 and went on to attend WYO Tech. He was an avid outdoorsman who loved to go camping, boating and hunting. He was a construction worker and a mechanic, very artistic and was a very good builder of furniture as well as building many pole barns. He also loved to go 4wheeling and had a passion for rock climbing and rappelling and fishing. He loved the annual camp out on Labor Day weekend with his family but his 1st love was his children. Dylan was always helping.. anyone in need, no matter if it was a stranger stranded on the side of the road or off in a ditch or a 4wheeler in the back 40 at campout. Always turning a wrench on his or someone's vehicle or motor.

Dylan is survived by his mother, Karla Crews of Carbondale, his father, Brad R. (Diane) Winslow of Creal Springs and one sister Addison Winslow of Carbondale. His two sons, Jared Riley Ramage and Keagan Levi Winslow both of Marion; one daughter, Karlee Lyn Winslow also of Marion; his partner Kelly Jo Ford, her son, Jace Ford and daughter Kateyia Ford of Marion.

Maternal grandmother, Emma Lou Crews of Carbondale and Paternal Grandmother, Bettie Lou Winslow of Dallas, TX. One niece, Emily Bundren of Carbondale, two nephews, Henry Bruns and Louis Bruns also of Carbondale; three aunts Kristy Sullivan of Carbondale, Donna Tomasi of Dallas, TX and Jo Ellen Roodhouse of Lake Norman, NC and one uncle, Alan (Jayne) Crews of Glen Carbon, IL; cousins, Sarah, Denver, Hannah, Patrick, Taylor, Riley, Rebecca, Weston and Benjamin.

He is preceded in death by his grandfathers, Karlyn Crews and Russell Winslow.

“ I was Dylan's first friend when he moved from Chicago to vienna in 7th grade. He was a tiny dude like i was at the time, but he was smaller lol! We hung out all the way til bout senior year.. life happens.. he spent the night at my house a lot. Had to push the '66 Chevy a few times down to my house, the gas tank was behind his driver seat, 3 gears.. it was a heavy chevy lmao! Havent hung out since H.S.. but i will never forget and will always remember everything i did with Dylan and every moment. We had more memories together that we can only keep secret haha .. love ya brother. Miss ya more than ya know. Wish i could've helped ya if i knew. Ppl get older and we mature, and get wiser.. man, we had sum stupid good times.. iguana, ferret, sun room, i remember when u wore a 5 shoe and was 4'5".. dam.. lots of more times i cant share on here! Love ya Dylan!

“ I'm not sure if Dylan realizes how many people loved and cared about him. A lot of people's worlds are a little less now. Prayers to your kiddos and may you finally Rest In Peace.
