

Edna Havlen

February 3, 1938 - January 10, 2020

Edna Havlen, 81, of Dongola, passed away at 3:20 PM, Friday, January 10, 2020 at her home.

She was born February 3, 1938 in Charleston, Missouri to Robert E. and Addie (Chumblee) King.

Edna was a LPN for many years.

She is survived by her three daughters, Kathy (Scott) Brady of AL, Donna (Barry) Roslin of FL, and Valerie (Tom) Hill of Anna; eight grandchildren, James Havlen, Todd Rauckman, Josh Rauckman (Angel Gomez), Emily (Zachary) Grimes, William (Dora) Havlen, Amie Havlen, Thomas Hill and Chelsea Hill (Josh Kaufman); great-grandchildren, Haylee and Sophia Rauckman, William, Kurtis, Kaitlin and Lauren Havlen, Harmony Cain, Robert and Matthew Magnum, Madyson and Kalynn Hill, Dixie and Jarrett Kaufman; one great great-grandson, Theo Havlen; two brothers, Julian and Floyd King; brother-in-law, Paul Havlen; Robin Norman, who was like a daughter to her; Amanda Victor and children, Shanna, Jonathan, Justin Lassiter (Tracy Rainbolt-Harris) and their children, Luke, Laura, Dillon, Brad (Sarah) Norman, and their children, Kazden and Myles who were like her grandchildren; longtime friend, Sue Ford-Gebken.

She was preceded in death by her parents; son, William Havlen; three sisters, Marie, Lois, and Alice; one brother, Roger; and J. D. Norman.

Per Edna's wishes, there will be no services. Cremation will be accorded.

Tribute Wall

“ Edna Havlen

October 23, 2023 at 06:26 AM

“ My Aunt Edna was a wonderful lady. She never got upset with us kids if we chided her about her height. She wasn't a tall person, but had the biggest heart of anyone I ever met. Her and my mother were very close. I remember she painted her girls bedroom with polka dots she said she used the paint can lid to form the dots. She was so cool. She'll be greatly missed.

ron - January 14, 2020 at 09:35 PM

“ I remember when I meant our grandmother Edna walked in my papa JD house with my grandmother there you could feel the love and warmth of our family being a family saw a big smile on there faces like no other before it was great

Amanda D victor - January 14, 2020 at 12:55 PM

Edna was my dear dear friend for 67 years. I'm going to miss her Sooo much Fly High my friend

sue ford-gebken - January 14, 2020 at 02:53 PM

"May Edna sleep in heavenly peace. I worked with Edna at UCH years ago. she was a great and caring person. Always a smile."

Mary Beth Hileman - January 16, 2020 at 12:14 AM

KR

“ So sorry for your loss. Prayers for comfort and healing for your family. I work with Edna at UCH for years. She was a dear friend and a great person to know. I have not forgotten what she done for me.

Karen Richards - January 14, 2020 at 12:48 PM