“ Another wonderful saint and friend and prayer warrior has fought the good fight and finished her race. She leaves warm and wonderful memories with many of us.

“ Betty was a loving beautiful soul, for awhile she was my mother-in-law, and how blessed I was to have her. She taught me many things and among those the greatest was her example of being a Christian lady! I recall the one thing she always wanted was for her children, grandchildren, and all her family to accept Jesus in their lives. She told my mother at her last stay in he hospital, she was ready and wanted to spend her birthday with Jesus, well her birthday is July 26th and she got her wish !! My thoughts and prayers go out to my son, daughter-in-law, grandchildren and all the King and Wyatt familes and other family members !!!
God Bless
