Emma was born on June 18, 1934, in Greenville, Missouri, to Henry Leggans and Emma (Cook) Leggans.

She had been a farmer and she was also a certified nurse's aide and had worked at the Rehab and Care Center of Jackson County.

Mrs. Pyatt was a member of Mt. Carbon Church of God in Murphysboro. She loved to work and she loved to work in the yard.

Emma married John Pyatt on March 25, 1987, in Murphysboro, and he survives.

Other survivors include two step children James Reinbold of Murphysboro, and Heather Pyatt of Jonesboro;

one step grandson Shawn Waddington of Jonesboro; two sisters Peewee Leggans and Dorothy Leggans, both of Greenville, MO; and lots of nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by one brother, one sister, and her parents.

Emma will be sadly missed by friends and family, which loved her deeply. A special thanks to the Rehab and Care Center of Jackson County, Hospice of Southern Illinois, Inc., for all her nurses and C.N.A.s that provided her with the care she rightly deserved.
