

Esther B. Dailey

November 1, 1909 - December 10, 2006

Esther B. Dailey, of Murphysboro, passed away at 12:20 p.m. Sunday, December 10, 2006, at St. Joseph Hospital in Murphysboro.

Esther was born November 1, 1909, in Patton, Missouri, to Dennis Niswonger and Doshia (Statler) Niswonger.

She worked at shoe factories in Chester, Cape Girardeau, and then at the former Brown Shoe Company in Murphysboro where she retired from as a fancy shoe stitcher.

Mrs. Dailey was Christian by faith. She was a member of American Legion Post #127 Ladies Auxiliary.

Esther married Charles Franklin Keller, and she later married Robert Dailey who preceded her in death on March 21, 1976. For many years, her companion was Kenneth Murray.

She is survived by three children and their spouses John and Susan Keller of Murphysboro, Ruth and Joe Grammer of Murphysboro, and Herb and Lynn Dailey of Tampa, FL;

fifteen grandchildren, sixteen great grandchildren;

one brother Floyd Niswonger and his wife Mary of Sedgewickville, MO, and one sister Glenda Killoren and her husband Bob of Perryville, MO.

Mrs. Dailey was preceded in death by a son David Keller, twin sons Donald and Charles Franklin Keller, and two daughters Barbara Keller and Martha Jane Dailey, three brothers, two sisters and her parents.

Tribute Wall

“ Esther B. Dailey

October 23, 2023 at 06:26 AM