“ Our deepest sympathy to you. We knew Eva as Bert. She was so important to us as a young married couple. She and Bill worked together when Bill and Lee were in the Air Force stationed in Madison, Wisconsin. We enjoyed fond memories at their home and going boating eating her awesome fried chicken and drinking coffee til the wee hours. Love you. RIP. Enjoy being well. You were a strong, smart, loving person.

“ My heart is broken. Aunt Bert is now in Heaven with mom and I'm sure they are laughing and "catching up" while celebrating with Jesus- and the rest of those who have gone before. I will miss her smile, laugh, caring spirit and those homemade noodles. Her and Uncle Lee were picked by God to be together and they took care of each other always. She gave joy to so many and she will truly be missed. Can't wait to see her again one day. Love you all and sorry I won't be able to be there for the service. Heart tears and hugs.
