“Gail was a lifelong friend. My heart is broken hearing of this great loss. We used to wear out the streets of Olive Branch on her motorcycle. When my Grandmother made yeast rolls, she and I would empty out the pan! I ate lots of meals at her house as well. We saw each other every day. She was at my Grandmother's house or I was at hers. I loved her. We've stayed in touch through the years. I will truly miss her. My prayers for Kenny, Randy and all the family. Heaven definitely gained an angel.

“Gail was as gentle of a soul and soft spoken as uncle Allen aunt Juanita and Randy! I was saddened to hear this news, but she is called home to rejoice with so many family members! God needed her home! ❤️

“I sure enjoyed going four wheeling with you and the gang. May you rest in peace in your eternal home. My condolences to Kenny and family.
