“ Gary Russell was a decent man. In all the time I've known him I've never heard an unkind word about anyone come out of his mouth. In a small town where rumors are buzzing around all the time, it means so much to have a guy like him around who doesn't judge. He'd be there for anyone who needed anything, if he could help you he would. If you needed to talk, he'd listen. Never an unkind word. He worked hard, loved his family, and was just an all around good guy. He treated everyone with love and kindness - when you were there, you were family. He didn't discriminate. Petty differences didn't matter. He was a living example of what God asks all of us to be. I think the best way to honor the memory of someone like him is to be like him, learn from his example, do like he would do. I truly believe that God has welcomed Mr. Russell into His heavenly kingdom with open arms, and said, "Well Done, Good and Faithful Servant!!"
