

Geneva Pinkston

March 21, 1944 - January 19, 2011

Geneva Pinkston, 66, of Elkhaville, Illinois, passed away at 8:03 a.m. on Wednesday, January 19, 2011, at the Rehab and Care Center of Jackson County in Murphysboro.

Funeral services for Mrs. Pinkston will be held at 11 a.m. on Friday, January 28, 2011, at Pettett Funeral Home, with Rev. Judy Patterson officiating and burial at Elkhaville Cemetery. Friends may call from 10 a.m. and until the hour of service on Friday. Memorials may be made to the family.

Geneva was born March 21, 1944, in Carrollton, Mississippi, to Willis Redditt and Willie Mae (Wheeler) Redditt.

She was a certified nurse's aid.

Mrs. Pinkston was a member and secretary of the L.A.C., as well as a secretary of the Tenant Patrol at the Mary Jane Richardson Apartments in Chicago, Illinois. She was an avid card player and she was a great cook!

She married Clayborn Charles Pinkston on March 20, 1967, and he preceded her in death on January 13, 1990.

Survivors include her mother Willie Mae Redditt of Chicago;

six sisters and one brother Nadean (John) Franklin, Jewell Williams, both of Chicago, Patricia Jones of Elkhville, Vanessa Williams of Chicago, Carolyn Williams of Murphysboro, Albert Williams of Las Vegas, Nevada, and Mary Williams of Murphysboro;

a host of nieces and nephews; and special friends Richard Range, Pepper Harris, Ms. Everhart, Frenchie, and Revall Burke.

She was preceded in death by one brother Henry Williams and her father.

Tribute Wall

“ Geneva Pinkston

October 23, 2023 at 06:26 AM