

George Henry Seeley

May 26, 1958 - October 19, 2010

George Henry Seeley, 52, of Murphysboro, Illinois and formerly of Cadillac, Michigan, passed away at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, October 19, 2010, at Barnes Hospital in St. Louis, Missouri.

George was born on May 26, 1958, in Cadillac, Michigan, to Edward Seeley and Peggy (Ferguson) Seeley.

He served in the U.S. Army during the early 1970's.

George was a small engine mechanic.

Mr. Seeley was attending of the First Assembly of God in Murphysboro, Illinois. On July 6, 2010, Mr. Seeley had been certified with the World Christianship Ministries to serve as a preacher.

He loved music, motorcycles, fishing, and hunting, but most of all, he loved his family.

He married Karen Mansikka on October 28, 1994, at Lone Pine, California, and she survives.

Other survivors include five children Amy Dwight and her husband Josh

Dwight of Murphysboro, Thomas Seeley of St. Charles, Michigan, Daphne Baase and Rick Cook, both of St. Charles, Michigan, and Jeff Cook of Swartz Creek, Michigan; fourteen grandchildren and one great grandson;

one brother Edward Seeley, Jr. and his wife Sherry Seeley of Cadillac, Michigan;

one sister Linda Seeley Ramacher of Evert, Michigan; and lots of nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by two sisters, one brother, and his parents.

His body will be cremated and memorial services will be held at a later date. Pettett Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ George Henry Seeley

October 23, 2023 at 06:26 AM