

Georgia "Faye" Maxheimer

December 20, 1940 - August 29, 2013

Georgia "Faye" (Stone) Maxheimer, 72, of Murphysboro, Illinois, passed away at 1:45 a.m. Thursday, August 29, 2013, at her residence in Murphysboro.

Georgia was born on December 20, 1940, in Gorham, Illinois, to Ralph Stone and Laura (Casey) Stone.

She met Phillip Elwood Maxheimer of Lincoln, Illinois, while he was attending school at Southern Illinois University and they were united in marriage on May 30, 1964, in Murphysboro.

Faye was baptized at the age of 12 and was a member of the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Murphysboro.

Faye was a licensed beautician and real estate sales person. She helped tend to the family farm, remodeled many family homes, and was a talented oil pointing artist. She enjoyed collecting and restoring antiques and spending time with and caring for her family members, especially her two grandchildren.

Survivors include her husband, Phillip Elwood Maxheimer of Murphysboro;

one son and daughter in law Leon and Autumn Maxheimer of Suzhou, China;

two grandchildren Harrison Scout Maxheimer and Mariah Maxheimer;

four sisters Maye Wills and her husband Clyde Wills of Murphysboro, Virginia "Jimmy" Mezo of Springfield, Dorothy Porter of El Paso, IL, Catheryne Bunselmeyer of Rockwood; and one brother Gene Stone and his wife Jamie Stone of Hanna City, IL.

She was preceded in death by one brother Ralph Stone, three brother in laws Homer Bunselmeyer, Harold Porter and Ralph Mezo, and her parents.

A private family visitation and memorial service was held at Immanuel Lutheran Church with Rev. Josemon Hoem officiating. Pettett Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements. Memorials may be made to Immanuel Lutheran Church in Murphysboro. For more information, please visit www.pettettfuneralhome.com.
