“ Georgia Jean was a fun cousin of mine growing up. We would sleep on the living room floor and tell stories all night. I do know that her grandmother thought that her daughter Kerry looked so much like me. We lost track thru the years unfortunately. I do know she had a wonderful husband and daughters she adored. I wish we could have reunited thru the years. I have fond memories of us as kids and rest in peace sweet Georgia Jean.

“ Georgia and I were friends in grade school and through high school. I have often wondered where she was and today I find out she was living in Benton, same as myself.
My deepest sympathy to her daughters. 💔💔💔

Georgia Jean, was fun growing up as young cousins. We lost touch thru the years but I do know how much she loved her girls. Aunt Beth and Georgia Jean always said Kerry looked like me. I would love to see her girls. Hugs to you two beautiful girls. 💕💕
